

Itinerary: Morocco

“Morocco, contrasts and adventure”

This motorhome tour through Morocco is a true adventure that will take you from the Atlantic coasts to the depths of the Sahara, passing through cities full of history, wild nature, and a fascinating culture.

An experience you will never forget!

Day 1: Córdoba, Operations Center

In Córdoba, we have our meeting point for all travelers, where we introduce the tour, hand out documentation, and enjoy a tapas tasting to get to know each other and share our concerns.

Day 2: Tarifa

We move on to Tarifa, from where we can already see the African continent and the Moroccan coast, our next destination. We check one last time to make sure everything is ready to begin the adventure.

Day 3: Algeciras – Tangier

The adventure begins at the Algeciras port, where we board the ferry to Tangier. The excitement builds as we cross the Strait of Gibraltar, leaving the Spanish coast behind. Upon arrival, we collect our motorhomes and head to our first destination, Kenitra, a vibrant city full of colors and sounds. Welcome dinner to taste the first Moroccan flavors.

Day 4: Rabat

Excursion to Rabat, the capital of Morocco. We visit the Royal Palace, the Kasbah of the Oudayas, and the impressive Hassan Tower. In the souk, we can enjoy local crafts while strolling through avenues full of history and culture. The city offers a unique blend of modernity and tradition, and its peaceful atmosphere prepares us for what's to come.

Days 5-6: Ouzoud Waterfalls

Venturing inland, we reach the Ouzoud Waterfalls, one of Morocco's most spectacular landscapes. We embark on a hiking route surrounded by lush nature, with the roar of the water falling from over 100 meters high.

Days 7-8: Marrakech

The next two days are spent in Marrakech, the red jewel of Morocco, where we will get lost in the bustling Medina souk, visit Jemaa el-Fna Square, and be amazed by the Majorelle Gardens and Bahia Palace. At night, the atmosphere of Marrakech fills with music, laughter, and lights, making every corner a unique experience.

Days 9-10: Essaouira

We head to the Atlantic coast, where the sea breeze greets us in Essaouira, a walled city full of history. Over these two days, we walk its cobbled streets, explore the fishing port, and enjoy the fresh tastes of the sea in local markets.

Day 11: Agadir

We head south to Agadir, a modern city known for its long seaside promenade. Here, we take some time to relax on its beautiful beaches, and we can't miss visiting Legzira Beach.

Day 12: Tafraoute

Entering the Anti-Atlas, we arrive at Tafraoute, an ideal place for excursions to its surroundings dotted with whimsically shaped rocks. You can lose yourself in its souk surrounded by typical slippers from the region. Latifa awaits us with a delicious dinner.

Day 13: The Blue Rocks and Napoleon's Hat. Tarudant

Today we explore a surreal landscape, the Blue Rocks and the enigmatic Napoleon's Hat. These rock formations, remnants of a distant time, transport us to another world. We stop to admire the views and take photos in this spectacular natural landscape that seems to come straight out of a storybook.

Day 14: Taliouine

Taliouine is famous for its saffron production and is one of the main exporters of this spice worldwide. We cannot miss the opportunity to visit a cooperative of this exclusive spice.

Days 15-16: Ouarzazate

We arrive in Ouarzazate, known as the "Gateway to the Desert." We visit the famous Atlas Studios, where movies like Gladiator and Lawrence of Arabia were filmed. We also explore the 17th-century Amridil Kasbah, where we feel as if we've traveled back in time to the era of caravans.

Day 17: Dades Gorge

Dades Gorge, a spectacular canyon, offers a landscape of red mountains and unique rock formations. The view from the lookout is breathtaking, and the afternoon shadows slowly fall over the valley.

Days 18-19: Lalla Mimouna Museum and Merzouga

We visit the Lalla Mimouna Museum, where we learn about Berber culture and traditions, before embarking on a journey into the desert, riding camels to the heart of the Erg Chebbi dunes. We'll enjoy a 4x4 excursion exploring the black desert and visiting nomadic families.

Day 20: Erfoud and Its Fossils

In Erfoud, known for its prehistoric fossils, we explore museums and markets where these ancient treasures are sold. We immerse ourselves in the history of the land, admiring how nature has perfectly preserved these remnants of a distant past.

Days 21-23: Fez, Meknes and Volubilis

We visit Fez and Meknes, two of the four Morocco's imperial cities, with its well-preserved Medina, monumental gates, and the majestic Royal Palace. We also visit Volubilis, the best-preserved Roman ruins in the country, where we walk among the remains of temples and villas.

Day 24: Chefchaouen

As the tour comes to an end, the road takes us to Chefchaouen, Morocco's famous "blue city." We stroll through its labyrinth of cobbled streets, where the blue-painted houses envelop us in a calm and colorful atmosphere. We take the opportunity to do some last-minute shopping at the local craft markets, enjoying the art and culture of the region.

Day 25: Return to the Peninsula

On the final day, we take the ferry back to the Peninsula, closing this tour with unforgettable memories of Morocco, leaving us with hearts full of unique experiences
